ROSS-ON-WYE

The market town of Ross-on-Wye is the gateway to the beautiful Wye Valley, near the Forest of Dean in the heart of Herefordshire.

Amongst the well-known features within the town is St. Mary's Church (whose spire dominates the skyline), the adjacent Prospect Gardens, the Market House building in market square where Tudor timbered houses cluster around the 17th Century Market Hall.

The town centre is full of wonderful independent shops, cafes, restaurants, galleries together with retro and vintage antique shops.
